The Minister's Desk

Dear friends

We place before you one more week the offer to review what works and what doesn't in our newsletter. With the intention of the newsletter is to capture our community's interests and information, the format is a simple structure, with succinct news and clear explanation on activities. The central parts of the newsletter will be: Lectionary readings and worship times, locations and preachers, The Minister's Desk, Calendar, What's on the Coast –your news items different from regular activities. We won't publish photos but encourage you to forward church related pics to the audio/visual tech for insertion during the community notice time in worship service. Please include the leader doing the notices in your email communications. Please send all articles and requests to: newslettersurfcoastuc@gmail.com

Please keep Andre, Louise and Jane in your prayers as they serve Jesus and minister to us through the Church communications.

Lenten Season lasts for 40 weekdays from Ash Wednesday to Easter. While it can mean different things to different people, traditionally it's a time for reflection and preparation, of fasting, prayer and giving to others. Lent is an opportunity to overhaul our lives to be more open, generous and joy-filled through repentance and letting go of the things that take us away from living our lives for God. Lent is the journey that leads us to the cross, but Easter is the true destination. So much awaits us for you see, while much joy is derived from knowing we live for God, experience the renewal of hope and joy over this Lenten season as this is what awaits us as Easter people. I pray the world may find the same such hope and joy in the outpouring of love and rejection of hate we have witnessed after the terrorist attack in New Zealand.

Peace be with you
Rev Suzie Castle

Passover Meal and Tenebrae service

You are invited for the Maundy Thursday Passover meal on April 18th at 6:00pm Star of the Sea Community Centre. This will be followed by a Tenebrae service (otherwise known as the service of Shadows) which ends in silence and darkness as we journey towards Good Friday. Please note the space will be darkened rather than dark to prevent falls or trips. For further details on the services or to participate in the service please contact Suzie. If you wish to help in food preparation and serving, or have questions on logistics, please contact Robyn Harper.

Theological Conversation on Marriage

Early this year, the decision of the Assembly of the Uniting Church to allow ministers the right to conduct Same gender marriages were upheld. Our minister, Suzie, indicated there will be time offered for a theological conversation on marriage before individual Church Councils make the decision whether same gendered couples will be welcome to be married in their church buildings. The Aireys Inlet Church Council reported to the November meeting of Linked Council that they would like to sponsor a forum for the Surf Coast Congregations to open this subject up for discussion. This was supported by Linked Council.

We are mindful that this is a subject on which our members will have widely differing opinions, all based on our understanding of scripture and our Christian beliefs. The idea is to promote an open, respectful and informed discussion that will assist each Church Council to reach a consensus decision that will sit comfortably with their congregation. The first theological conversation will lead and facilitated by Rev Dr Geoff Thompson on Saturday the 13th April at 2.00pm at the Anglesea Church. Geoff is our Associate Professor in systematic theology at the VicTas Synod Pilgrim Theological College. His research has focused on Karl Barth, the functions of doctrine in the church and the theology of the Uniting Church (especially the Basis of Union). Current research is on the relationship between the doctrine of creation and contemporary discussions of sexuality and gender. Geoff blogs about systematic theology and the theology of the Uniting Church at www.xenizonta.blogspot.com.au To see further credentials: <https://pilgrim.edu.au/about-pilgrim/faculty/research-profile-geoff-thompson/>

Please put this date in your calendar and do your best to attend this important event in the life of your Church.

Following this conversation, there will be discussion forums offered over a period of time, so everyone has the opportunity to engage and reflect. For example, Rev Sue Townsend (an Aireys Inlet "swallow" and worship leader) is available to lead and facilitate a follow-up workshop further exploring a theological understanding of same gender relationships.

Aireys Inlet Ecumenical Bible Study/Discussion group will start a Lenten Study on Thursday 7th March at 10:30am at the Aireys Inlet church. It looks like a very meaningful study and is entitled, "All I have is yours - Forty days to Freedom by Michael McGirr". You can view a sample chapter at:

A Response to the UCA's Assembly lack of action in relation to the National Redress Scheme.

At our Congregational meeting in Torquay on March 17th, 2 motions were put to the congregation and carried. The outcome of these motions was a letter sent to the General Secretary of the UCA Assembly, asking them to advise us as to why the National UCA Assembly has not yet signed the National Redress Scheme and when this will be happening, and to urge them to do so as a matter of urgency.
